Comment Submitted:

The designation of the energy corridor through Indian Springs Nevada 89018 is an example of bureaucracy with blinders on. The process and list may have been followed as to where notices should have been recorded about this designation, but you forgot all about the fact that this is a community inhabited by people, and you didn't tell us. So, if people don't enter into your planning then I guess you can just move the corridor South of Grandpa Mountain, where there are no people, and then we'll all be happy.
